Statement of Claim

Plaintiff Angelita C. Merrado brings suit against the named defendants for violation of state law, and violation of federal law under 42 USC Section 1983 of the United States Constitution.

On July 15th 2020 the Plaintiff was arrested by the Columbus Police Department, and taken to Columbus Regional Hospital. While in the emergency room the Plaintiff was asked by an officer to do a Covid test. The Plaintiff refused without a search warrant. The Plaintiff was put in a choke hold by one of the officers who then ordered Dr. Locoh'donou to swab the Plaintiff's nose for the Covid test. The Plaintiff told Dr. Locoh'donou he had a right not to have his DNA or any bodily fluids from his body taken for any test without a warrant. The doctor asked the officer if he wanted him to still swab the plaintiff, and the officer said "Do it". The Plaintiff struggled, and the doctor swabbed blood from the Plaintiff's nose. The Plaintiff told the doctor he swallowed narcotic drugs. But the doctor failed to treat the Plaintiff, or check for drugs inside the Plaintiff. Officers then ordered the doctor shoot the Plaintiff "up with something to calm him down", and the doctor injected the Plaintiff with an unknown drug without any regard that it could counteract with the narcotics in his system and kill the Plaintiff.

Dr. Locoh' Donou was intertwined with state actors and taking orders to violate the plaintiffs civil rights making him under the Color of Law and liable for damages under 42 USC Section 1983.

Plaintiff Charges Dr. Locoh' Donou with,

- Count 1 - Illegal Search and Seizure
- Count 2 - Violation of Due Process
- Count 3 - Failure to Intervene
- Count 4 - Deliberate Indifference
- Count 5 - Violation of Equal Protection Law
- Count 6 - Negligence
- Count 7 - Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress
- Count 8 - Violation of Reasonable Duty of Care
- Count 9 - Conspiracy

Plaintiff charges Columbus Regional Hospital with a Superior Respondent claim and being responsible for their employee's conduct who violated state law, and the civil rights of the Plaintiff by Dr. Locoh' Donou who is employed by the Columbus Regional Hospital.

Plaintiff Charges Columbus Regional Hospital with,

- Count 1 - Negligence
- Count 2 - Respondent Superior Liability
- Count 3 - Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

All claims causing loss of liberty, Emotional Distress,
Mental Anguish, Pain and Suffering.

Plaintiff make a Jury Trial Demand.

Plaintiff is Suing for Violation of Federal law 28 USC
1331

Prayer for Relief
